

“No Child Left Behind” Resource List

General Information on NCLB

Main No Child Left Behind federal web page, US Department of Education, Office of Elementary and Secondary Education. <http://www.nclb.gov/>

- Contains the “basics” of NCLB and links to all NCLB legislation, regulations, and policy guidance, including resources (click on “policy and legislation”).

Main No Child Left Behind state web page, California Department of Education, <http://www.cde.ca.gov/pr/nclb/>

- Includes updates, California’s consolidated state application, and key contacts.

No Child Left Behind: A Desktop Reference 2002, U.S. Department of Education, Office of Elementary and Secondary Education. <http://www.ed.gov/offices/OESE/reference.pdf>

- Outlines what is new under the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 for each program supported under the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965 and other statutes.

U.S. Department of Education, a monthly NCLB newsletter, The Achiever <http://www.nochildleftbehind.gov/Newsletter/index.html>

No Child Left Behind: Charter School Leaders Tool Kit, Charter Friends National Network. <http://www.charterfriends.org/NoChildLeftBehind.html>

- Introductory information and discussion papers on the potential challenges and consequences of NCLB for charter schools. Includes NCLB final regulations.

Teacher Qualifications

<http://www.ed.gov/offices/OESE/SIP/TitleIIguidance2002.doc>

- Detailed guidance that addresses the program authorized under Title II, Part A, known as “Improving Teacher Quality State Grants.” Includes provisions for charter school credentialing that defers to state law.

Student Performance and Accountability

2001-02 Annual Report of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) for Title I Schools, California Department of Education. <http://www.cde.ca.gov/iasa/titleone/pi/pi03letter.html>

- Letter sent by State Superintendent of Public Instruction to district superintendents, county superintendents, and categorical program directors regarding last year's and this year's compliance with NCLB.

School Choice

Public School Choice: Draft Non-Regulatory Guidance, US DOE.

<http://www.ed.gov/offices/OESE/SASA/schoolchoiceguid.pdf>

- The guidance on the public school choice component of Title I and on some provisions that may be useful in administering and implementing these requirements.

Supplemental Services

Supplemental Educational Services: Draft Non-Regulatory Guidance, US DOE.

<http://www.ed.gov/offices/OESE/SASA/suppsvcsguid.pdf>

- Guidance on the supplemental services component of Title I.

Student Directory Information

Policy Guidance - Access to High School Students and Information on Students by Military Recruiters, US DOE, OESE. http://www.ed.gov/offices/OM/fpco/pdf/ht_100902b.pdf

- Short question and answer briefing on the access military recruiters have to student information.